1. School features

1. About Incorporated Educational Institution ARC Gakuen

Incorporated Educational Institution ARC Gakuen was constituted to welcome young individuals interested in Japanese culture and society intending to learn the language, and to contribute to their education as citizens of the world. The values behind the name 「ARC」 are “Articulation, “Realization” and “Contribution, and our distinctive trait is the multinational spirit of the school.

We opened the school, conveniently accessible from Iidabashi station, in October 2017, with the aim of contributing to the growth of the local community and the diffusion of Japanese language and culture, by providing high-quality Japanese language education all while promoting a deep mutual understanding between people of different backgrounds.

2. Communication skills training and various classroom activities

ARC Tokyo Japanese Language School’s learning objective is the acquisition of Japanese communication ability: being able to appropriately express one’s feelings and thoughts; being able to grasp correctly others’ intentions; discovering each other’s culture and traditions. All starts from communication based on mutual understanding and respect.

At the core of classroom life lie active tasks: the school provides students multiple opportunities to put into practice what they have learned and express themselves. In addition, students can improve reading, writing, listening, speaking and even thinking skills thanks to a wide range of optional classes, lessons on Japanese Affairs, project works, and multiple chances to exchange information and ideas.

3. Academic and Career support

(1) Higher education counseling

For students who plan to enter higher education in Japan, the schools periodically holds seminars to provide and share the latest news on Japanese education; individual counseling and interview simulation are also available for a complete support. In addition, students with excellent marks and attendance rates can enjoy a recommendation system.

(2) Employment support

In recent years, foreign students finding employment in Japanese firms are increasing. To get employment offers, it is important to have a good understanding of Japanese corporate culture. For students requesting it, teachers actively help collecting information and simulating job interviews.

(3) Special classes for different post-graduation goals

Students of the advanced levels have access to three special classes with highly specialized curricula divided per post-graduation goals: Business Japanese Class and Preparatory Class Graduate School.

(4) Exam preparation courses

In preparation for EJU (Examination for Japanese University Admission for International Students; twice a year: June and November) and JLPT (Japanese Language Proficiency Test; twice a year: July and December), the school organizes free extra classes to train students to solve the exams problems. (EJU: Comprehensive Japanese; JLPT: level N1, N2 and N3)

4. School events

Throughout the school year, student life sparkles with events such as field trips, sports day and speech contest. The school also organizes seasonal events every term.

5. Scholarships

Students have access to multiple scholarships: the “Program for the promotion of the admission of international students” (former “Scholarship of the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology for international students”), the “LSH Scholarship”, the “Kyoritsu Maintenance Scholarship”, as well as ARC Tokyo Japanese Language School’s own scholarship.

6. School facilities

The 8-story building is furnished with a school library, prayer room, infirmary, lounge and courtyard, where students can spend their free time relaxing and studying. Students can also borrow books and textbooks from the school library. Wi-Fi network is available in the whole building.

7. Counseling Service

A Counseling Service is there to follow up and support students in their studies, and give advice on every day life, part-time and full-time work, as well as any personal struggle. Support provided in Chinese, English, Vietnamese, Korean, French, German and Italian.

7. Life in Japan

1. Cost of life

Living expenses (food, housing, utilities etc.) range from approximately 100,000¥ to 150,000¥ per month. When signing a housing contract, the tenant might have to pay, besides rent, a deposit and a non-refundable deposit. In addition, a commuter pass is necessary for the daily commute to school. The school recommends students bring at least 400,000~500,000¥ for living expenses for the first few months. Many students take part-time jobs; minimum hourly wage in Tokyo area is around 1,000¥.

2. National Health Insurance, Foreign Students Plan Insurance

Students holding a Student Visa are issued a Resident Card upon arrival in Japan. Within 14 days since establishing the address, foreigners must submit the “Moving-In Notification” to the nearest city hall or ward office and apply for National Health Insurance. Students who applied for National Health Insurance can use JLIC Foreign Student Plan Insurance system through ARC Academy. JLIC Insurance covers the medical fees not reimbursed by the National Health Insurance (30%) for any illness or injury the student suffers during the enrollment (medical expense per case must be over 3,000¥). Students with short-term visa cannot apply for National Health Insurance, but can apply for JLIC Insurance after admission.

3. Part-time jobs:

Foreigners in Japan under a student visa, after obtaining a specific permission called “Shikakugai Kyoka” from the Immigration Bureau, can work up to 28 hours per week (8 hours a day during long holidays). Students are not allowed to work in the entertainment and amusement trades.

4. Illegal behavior:

A student who infringes the law or school regulations, or fails to pay the tuition within the deadlines, would be expelled or asked to withdraw from school and leave the country. The same applies for unmotivated long absence from school or misconduct. Student must keep an attendance rate of 90%.

5. Accommodation

The school can provide information on accommodations within a convenient reach. In case the housing facilities do not have vacant rooms, it might not be possible to meet students' requests.
